

The truth about life insurance & smoking

INSURE

If you're a smoker, you may think you won't qualify for life insurance coverage. But why should being a smoker preclude you from getting the life insurance you deserve?

At John Hancock, we believe everyone deserves access to affordable life insurance, whether they're perfectly healthy, working on getting healthier, or even living with a chronic condition. That's why we're constantly innovating to provide people with life insurance products that help them live healthier every day.
