

Uninsurable?

Companies have different underwriting guidelines. A client considered high-risk by one carrier may still qualify with another carrier that specializes in certain medical conditions, age groups, or financial situations.

The goal is to continue looking for solutions instead of allowing the client to leave without options. Persistence and creativity often lead to placements that initially seemed impossible.